Metonymy Vs. Metaphor: Comparing and Analyzing the Concepts

The difference between metaphor and metonymy then arises, when a metaphor draws a relation between two different objects/situations/persons for better understanding. For instance, if one says he is the office clown , it does not literally mean that this individual dresses up like a clown and comes to entertain everyone in the office.

Difference Between Metaphor and Metonymy

Metaphor and metonymy are similar in various aspects but the major difference is that if a metaphor substitutes a concept with another, a metonymy selects a related term. So, if metaphor is for substitution, metonymy is for association. For example, the sentence he is a tiger in class is a
